Keto Kids Club was started by parents to support children and their families using dietary treatments to improve the symptoms of a broad range of neurological disorders.

There are very few social communities for children on the Ketogenic Diet and their caregivers. Because children and caregivers often feel isolated and have limited resources, three parents of children with neurological disorders came together to start an annual event to address these issues.

DATE: Thursday October 22, 2015

TIME: 4:00pm - 8:00pm

LOCATION: St. Barnabas Ambulatory Care Center
200 South Orange Avenue
Livingston, NJ 07039

SPEAKERS

Dr. Orrin Devinsky, MD - Director of NYU Langone’s Comprehensive Epilepsy Center
Dr. Eric Kosoff, MD - Director of Johns Hopkins Ketogenic Diet and Child Neurology Residency Program
Paul Jaminet, PhD - Author of The Perfect Health Diet
Courtney Schnabel Glick, MS RD CDN - Registered Dietician Ketogenic Program NYU Langone

REGISTRATION

$20 per individual over the age of 16
(group discounts are available and children under 16 are free)

FEATURING

- An interactive cooking segment with shared recipes and tasting for our families
- Keto-friendly vendors
- Goody bags
- Entertainment
- Online recipe contest sponsored by Cambrooke Therapeutics
  3 winners will receive a $150 Visa Gift Card

https://www.facebook.com/ketokidsclub

We have secured a group rate at the Short Hills Hilton in NJ for any out-of-town families.
Please email info@ketokidsclub.com for additional information.

Registration fees are tax deductible